

National pollution and prevention day

Date: 20.12.21

No.of. students participated:30

Objective: To awareness of students for protection from pollution and controlling measurements.

Description: The department of Botany conducted national pollution control day alterations on 02.12.21 150 Bsc students are participated in the programme.3 students give excellent speech about pollution control using PPT(elocution competition)&13 student are participated in poster presentation.

Outcome: students to develop their creative skills for poster presentation&PPT presentation.